Exhibit 99.1

GigaMedia Limited (“GigaMedia” or the “Company”) announced today the results of a general meeting of shareholders held on November 30, 2005. With respect to a resolution to appoint GHP Horwath, P.C., a member firm of Horwath International (“Horwath”), as the Company’s new independent auditor, voting results were as follows:

Votes	Percentage
For	99.80
Against	0.10
Abstained	0.10

Horwath is the world’s eighth largest international association of full service accounting firms, according to industry source Accounting Today. Headquartered in New York, Horwath has more than 400 offices located in 90 countries.

Management expects PricewaterhouseCoopers (“PwC”) to resign following the appointment of Horwath. Management further expects the change to Horwath will lower GigaMedia’s annual audit fees. The Company intends to continue to engage PwC for advisory services, including work related to Sarbanes-Oxley reporting requirements and mergers and acquisitions.

PwC acted as the Company’s independent auditor for fiscal years 2002 through 2004. Throughout the period, PwC issued unqualified opinions in connection with GigaMedia’s financial statements and there were no disagreements between the Company and PwC on any matter of accounting principles, financial disclosure or audit procedures.
